KUALA LUMPUR

Home to the the magnificent Petronas Twin Towers, which were the world's tallest buildings until just recently. KL has a dynamic fusion of cultures – a colorful mélange of Hindu shrines, Chinese temples and Islamic mosques alongside mega-malls and modern hotels. To get a feel for Kuala Lumpur's more traditional side, visit Chinatown, Little India and the Malay community of Kanpung Baru. Nearby, the Batu Caves are famous for its Hindu shrines. And if shopping's on your agenda, head to Suria KLCC for just about anything, or to Jalan Benteng for Malaysian handicrafts.
