

May 29 - June 1, 2012

SHORE EXCURSIONS

EXPLORATIONS!

Voyager of the Seas

SHORE EXCURSIONS

4 NIGHT ISLES OF SOUTHEAST ASIA CRUISE

ALL EXPLORATIONS! WILL BE OPERATED ON SHIP'S TIME IN ALL PORTS-OF-CALL.
PLEASE CHECK YOUR TICKETS FOR TIME AND LOCATIONS.

Book via RCTV - The fastest way to make a reservation. No need to wait in line.
Bookings on RCTV after 4:00 pm must be collected at Explorations! Desk.

- 1 Order through RCTV for fast service and instant confirmation on your stateroom television by pressing the 'menu' key on your remote and selecting 'Explorations!' By using RCTV, you will know immediately if the tour you want is available and the tickets will be delivered to your stateroom within 24 hours. Cut off time is 4:00 pm the day prior to each port.
- 2 Choose a tour, circle a time on the order form, write the number of tickets you desire and indicate a second choice. Deposit at the Explorations! Desk, Deck 5. Order forms are processed in the order received. Confirmation will be sent to your stateroom within 24 hours.
- 3 Purchase directly with Explorations! Staff at the Explorations! Desk, Deck 5 at the Clock Tower and SeaTrek Dive Shop, Deck 15. Please note that you may have to wait in line. (Refer to your Cruise Compass for opening hours.)

Level of Difficulty Indicators

MILD

To fully participate may require leisurely walking over primarily even surfaces. There may be a limited number of steps, a minimal amount of cobblestones or uneven surfaces, and some standing for extended periods of time.

MODERATE

To fully participate may require extended periods of walking over even and uneven surfaces, steep terrain and/or water activity in a slight current. There may be steps, inclines, cobblestone surfaces, and extended periods of standing. Participants with physical limitations should take this into account.

STRENUOUS

To fully participate may require extended periods of physical exertion, extensive walking, climbing, or biking. There may be numerous steps, inclines, cobble stones, and other rough terrain throughout the excursion. These excursions are the most active and have been designed for participants in excellent health and very good physical condition.

NAME: _____
STATEROOM: _____
SIGNATURE: _____
SEAPASS: _____

IMPORTANT TIPS AND INFORMATION

Explorations! See your Compass for desk hours.

Weather Notice: All tours will go rain or shine unless considered unsafe by the tour operators. Bring sun protection.

Exchanges or Cancellations: 11:00 am the day before a tour is the deadline required for exchanges or cancellations. No refunds will be given after the deadline.

Prices are subject to change without prior notice

Child Prices: Available for children 4 to 12 years.

Guest Under 18 years: Must be accompanied by an adult.

Tour Duration: Please note that these are approximate times, and may vary.

Lost and Found: Royal Caribbean International cannot be held responsible for any lost items during our excursions.

- Tours are sold on a "First Come - First Served Basis".
- Please check your tickets for departure time and location.

Port Kelang, Malaysia

May 30, 2012

Arrival: 7:00 am

All Aboard: 3:30 pm

	Tour Description	Departure	Duration	No. of Tickets
KC19	Kuala Lumpur On Your Own Explore Kuala Lumpur, the happening city that has lots to offer independent visitors. The journey will take a bit more than an hour before arriving into the capital city. You'll be dropped off at Lot 10 in the Bukit Bintang area. Lot 10 is modern mall within walking distance of some of KL's other main shopping precinct and complexes. Nearby is the popular and trendy Bintang Walk, a street with many decorative restaurants and cafes offering local and international cuisine. At the designated time and pick up point, rejoin your coach for the return transfer to the ship. Note: The amount of walking is at guest's discretion. Please note that this tour is non-guided, this is only round trip transfer to Kuala Lumpur.	7:30 am	7 Hrs	Adult $35	Child $23
KC20	Kuala Lumpur Light and Easy Board your air-conditioned motor coach for an approximately 1 1/2 hour drive to Kuala Lumpur, passing several new industrial developments en route to the National Monument and Independence Square. First stop is at the National Monument. This huge bronze monument was built to pay tribute to the valiant soldiers who gave their lives defending the country during the Insurgency in 1950s. This will be followed by a photo-stop at Independence Square, probably the most photographed site in all of Malaysia. It was the	7:00 am	7 Hrs	Adult $55	Child $39

Port Kelang, Malaysia

May 30, 2012

Arrival: 7:00 am

All Aboard: 3:30 pm

	Tour Description	Departure	Duration	No. of Tickets
	former playing field of the Royal Selangor Club & now this is where parades & Independence Day festivities are celebrated. The remarkable Moorish architecture of the Sultan Abdul Samad Building is best admired here. Then a quick photo stop at the tallest twin towers in the world & the pride of Malaysia: the Petronas Twin Towers standing at 1483 feet (452m) high. The final drop off is at Suria KLCC (adjacent to the Petronas Twin Towers) for an approximately 3 hours of free time for shopping in one of the city's finest shopping districts. Lunch is on your own. Rejoin your motor coach at the predetermined time for the return trip back to the cruise ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 1.2 miles over flat and uneven surfaces with some steps. Sequence of tour may change to avoid over crowding at venues.
KC21	Batu Caves & City Experience Board your air-conditioned motor coach for an approximately 1 1/2 hour drive to Kuala Lumpur. This program will bring you through an excellent combination of highlights and attractions in Kuala Lumpur suburbs and the Batu Caves. It is an introduction to traditional handicrafts, residential areas and wondrous sculpture. You will discover the beauty of city suburbs and marvel at the colorful displays of Hindu deities in the limestone caves. The Batu Caves a natural beauty that has never ceased to attract visitors. Consisting of three main caves and a number of smaller ones, the top cave features an ornate Hindu Shrine, via the 272 steps built specially to scale the steep, jagged face of the limestone outcrop. Please note that the Batu Caves is a very strenuous tour only for the fit and healthy as it involves climbing up the 272 steps. Next you will visit The Royal Selangor Visitor Centre to observe the disappearing art of pewter making. Malaysian pewter is noted for its excellent quality and design. Here you will see how pewter smiths work at their craft to create beautiful items of pewter. The next stop will be at the Independence Square. The former playing field of the Royal Selangor Club, the square is also the site where important events are held such as National Day celebrations and streets parades. Located within is the Royal Selangor Club, a charming mock-Tudor structure. Another remarkable edifice is the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, served as the government administration during the British era. Not to be missed is the Cathedral of Saint Mary the Virgin an Anglican Church, located within the area. After lunch, we will visit the observation deck of the world's fourth tallest communication tower - KL Tower. This majestic 421 meter high tower offers stunning 360-degree views of the entire city. Our final stop will be at the magnificent Petronas Twin Towers. This will be a photo stop. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 2.1 miles over flat and uneven surfaces with 272 steps to reach the Batu Caves. Sequence of tour may change to avoid over crowding at venues. Buffet lunch included.	7:00 am	7 Hrs	Adult $82__	Child $59__
KC23	Kuala Lumpur Shopping Board your air-conditioned motor coach for an approximately 1 1/2-hour drive to Kuala Lumpur, passing several new industrial developments en route to Independence Square, the first stop. It is the former playing field of the Royal Selangor Club; the square is also the site where important events are held such as celebrating Independence Day, ushering in of the New Year, tourism events and many others. The square is surrounded with legacies of the colonial era, from the old Municipal Building to the Royal Selangor Club. The square is also home to the Sultan Abdul Samad Building and the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin. Continue your tour to Central Market, a former "wet market" that has been saved from being turned into another mega mall and transformed into an art and craft centre, and Chinatown. Stroll through the Petaling Street covered bazaar, a bargain hunters' paradise with its endless variety of goods ranging from t-shirts to traditional Chinese herbal medicines. You will have a photo stop opportunity at the Petronas Twin Towers. Later disembark at Lot 10 for the rest of the afternoon to shop in the Bukit Bintang area, one of the city's finest shopping districts. Lunch is on your own.	7:15 am	7 Hrs	Adult $55__	Child $35__
KC27	Makan - Makan& Shopping Your first stop will be for BakKutTeh. BakKutTeh was introduced to Malaysia in the 19th century by Chinese coolies and workers from Canton, Chaoshan or Fujian. The dish is reported to supplement the meager diet of port coolies and as a tonic to boost their health. The dish went on to become a famous dish and was copied and improved many times over. The meal will be an additional cost. After a sumptuous BakKutTeh, you will be dropped off at Suria KLCC, one of Kuala Lumpur's premier shopping malls. Your guide will advise you on the pick time and meeting point. Note: Transfer time to the BakKutTeh shop will take approximately 1 hour 15 minutes.	7:30 am	7 Hrs	Adult $35__	Child $23__
KC28	A Day at Mid Valley Megamall This will be a transfer to Mid Valley Megamall. Commanding a strategic location between Kuala Lumpur & Petaling Jaya, the Mid Valley Megamall is one of Asia's largest retail, food and entertainment centers. Covering more than 1.7 million sq.ft of lettable space spread over five floors, its anchor tenants are the largest Metrojaya fashion chain store in the country, Jusco department store occupying four floors and Carrefour. Other tenants include 23 junior and mini anchors with another 430 specialty shops offering Malaysian and International fashion, electrical appliances, gifts and souvenirs, lifestyles and IT products. It has a large selection of the international fast food chains together with restaurants serving local fare. Your guide will provide details on your drop off and as well as your pick time and meeting location. Note: Transfer time to the Mid Valley Megamall will take approximately 1 hour 15 minutes. Lunch will be an additional cost.	7:30 am	7 Hrs	Adult $35__	Child $23__

Phuket, Thailand

May 31, 2012

Arrival: 10:00 am

All Aboard: 8:30 pm

	Tour Description	Departure	Duration	No. of Tickets
PK01	Panoramic Tour Here's an ideal opportunity to see some of the finest sights Phuket has to offer, all from the comfort of an air-conditioned motor coach. A local guide will keep you fully informed as a kaleidoscope of villages, temples, mosques, markets and beaches pass by. Begin by passing the Two Heroines Monument, built to commemorate two Thai women who saved Phuket from a Burmese invasion in the 18th century. Then pass by the island's biggest mosque at Bang Tao Village before driving along the coastal road passing Surin, Kamala, Patong, and Karon Beaches. Drive to Chalong temple, the most sacred temple for a photo opportunity. As your coach enters the town of Phuket, glimpse exterior views of old Sino-Portuguese-style buildings, the local market and the Chinese shrine. Continue to Patong Beach, the island's famous beach which offers long stretches of silky white sand and crystalline waters for photos before returning to the pier. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 50 yards over flat surfaces with 3 - 5 steps to enter/exit the coach. No interior visits will be made on this excursion, only a photo stop. Tour order may vary in order to avoid traffic congestion.	11:00 am	4 ½ Hrs	Adult $29__	Child $24__
PK02	Elephant Riding Adventure Enjoy an air-conditioned motor coach ride to Elephant Camp. At the camp, you will have a great opportunity to participate in activities; firstly, you will enjoy the talented baby elephant show and next, take an elephant ride. After doubling up with a partner, enjoy a ride through tropical forest and plantation. Transfer to the Cashew Factory. The Cashew nut tree originates in the rain forest. In 1901, the former governor general of Phuket brought the seeds of cashew nut into the Southern territory of Siam Kingdom. Since then, this crop had widely cultivated and developed to thrive throughout the Kingdom. There, you will watch a process of cashew nut products such as skilled workers cracking nutshells to create a mouth-watering variety of snacks and sweets. Enjoy a drive south of Phuket Town to the Chalong Temple; Phuket's largest and most sacred. Of particular interest are the goldleaf- encrusted statues of three former abbots. One of them, Luang Por Cham, was well known for his medical skills and magical powers, which he successfully used when Phuket was attacked by the Chinese at the turn of the 20th century. Before returning to the ship, stop to shop for the handicrafts, pearls, precious stones at Wang Talang's souvenir shop. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 0.4 miles over even, uneven and cobblestone surfaces with 15 to 20 steps. Low heeled, comfortable walking shoes and comfortable, loose clothing, and a hat are recommended. Ladies may want to wear slacks or shorts to ride the elephants.	10:45 am	4 ½ Hrs	Adult $59__	Child $39__

Phuket, Thailand

May 31, 2012

Arrival: 10:00 am

All Aboard: 8:30 pm

Tour Description

Departure

Duration

No. of Tickets

PK04

Thai Massage

10:00 am

6 ½ Hrs

Adult $75

Child $75

Begin with a brief orientation and a panoramic view from Rang Hill which offers views of Phuket City. Next, enjoy a Thai traditional massage, the ancient art of body therapy for healing, health, and transformation. It is an interactive manipulation of the body using passive stretching and gentle pressure along energy lines that help adjust the skeletal structure, increase flexibility, relieve muscular and joint tension, stimulate internal organs, and balance the body's energy system. Sessions typically last two hours, and are performed on a floor with the client dressed in comfortable loose clothing. Afterwards, a buffet lunch will be served at the Metropole. After lunch, continue to the Cashew Nut Factory to watch as skilled workers create a mouth-watering variety of snacks and sweets. Stop at a local souvenir shop where pewter, handicraft, Thai silk, cultured pearls and precious stones are sold. Next, discover the Chalong Temple located about three miles south of Phuket Town, this impressive temple is Phuket's largest and most sacred. Of particular interest are the gold-leaf-encrusted statues of three former abbots. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 0.5 miles over even and cobblestone surfaces with 35 to 40 steps. Time permitting; guests will have approximately 25 minutes for shopping and browsing. Order of sightseeing may vary to avoid congestion at some venues.

PK05

Temple Visit & Holy Places

10:00 am

5 ½ Hrs

Adult $49

Child $34

Depart to Promthep Cape located at the south-end of Phuket Island, a breathtaking panoramic vista overlooking the southern tip of the island. South of Phuket Town, we drive to Chalong Temple, Phuket's largest and most sacred. Of particular interest are the gold-leaf encrusted statues of three former abbots. Continue your journey to Saeng Tham Chinese Shrine, one of the oldest Chinese Shrines in Phuket City, built for the Chinese migrants who moved to Phuket to be tin laborers. Drive past Saphan Hin or the monument of the Tin Dredger, dedicated to the memory of Captain Edward Thomas Miles, the Australian who brought the first tin dredge to Phuket in 1909. Also see the monument of the Father of the Thai Navy, HRH Prince Chumporn. Continue with a brief orientation and a panoramic view from Rang Hill. A small hill located northeast of the town, it offers a fascinating view of Phuket City. Then continue past the Monument of the Two Heroine. The monument comprises the statue of two women who led Thalung villagers forced against Burmese's attack in 1785. Then arrive at the Pranang Sang Temple. Pranang Sang Temple in Thalung is the oldest Buddhist temple on the island, decorated with large bilingual paintings or story boards that are telling the recent history of Phuket. Your final stop will be at the Prathong Temple. This is the second most important temple on Phuket. Its name is derived from a magic statue of the Buddha (Phra Tong means "golden Buddha"). Your tour will end back at the ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 0.6 miles over even and cobblestone surfaces with 60 steps. Conservative attire is recommended when going ashore on this tour. No exposed shoulder or knees. Short pants and tank tops are not acceptable.

PK06

Phuket Overview & Thai Cultural Show

10:45 am

5 Hrs

Adult $45

Child $35

Enjoy a stop at the Cashew Nut Factory. In 1901, the former governor general of Phuket brought the seeds of cashew nuts into the Southern territory of the Siam Kingdom. Since then, this crop had widely cultivated and developed throughout the Kingdom. Watch as skilled workers crack nutshells to create a mouth-watering variety of snacks and sweets. Your next stop is located south of Phuket Town at the impressive Chalong Temple, Phuket's largest and most sacred temple. Of particular interest are the gold-leaf-encrusted statues of three former abbots. One of them, Luang Por Cham, was well known for his medical skills and magical powers. Before driving to Phuket Cultural Center, a short shopping stop is made for the local products, handicrafts, pearl, and precious stones. You will then visit Phuket Orchid Garden and Thai Village for a Thai Cultural Performance. The show provides an exciting, sample of Thai life and culture of the people of the southern part of Thailand. After a scenic drive through Phuket City to explore the Sino-Portuguese Building and its surroundings, stop to cool down after a half day excitement at Rang Hill which is known by the locals as a botanical garden for multi-purpose use such as fitness park and rest area. Enjoy the drive back to the ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 0.5 miles over even and cobblestone surfaces with 30 to 35 steps. Time permitting; guests will have approximately 25 minutes for shopping and browsing.

PK10

Snorkeling at Phi Phi Island by Speedboat

10:00 am

8 ½ Hrs

Adult $145

Child $115

Explore the incredible crystal-clear waters of the Andaman Sea and its underwater world of colorful reefs and tropical fish on this full day snorkel adventure. During this tour, discover the magic of Thailand's abundant marine life, peaceful and romantic beaches and exotic rock formations. Depart the pier and travel by speedboat to Maya Bay, located on the west side of Phi Phi Leh, considered one of the areas outstanding beaches. Maya Bay is where the movie "The Beach" was filmed. Enjoy time to swim and snorkel in the translucent emerald sea with its rich coral reefs and undersea life before re-boarding speedboat for an enjoyable sightseeing tour of the magnificent karst formations and islands of Nopparattara and Phi Phi Island National Park. Stop at Bamboo Island, a spectacular slice of tropical paradise with pristine white sandy beaches surrounded by amazing coral reefs. Following lunch at a local resort, visit the picturesque Koh Khai Island with time to enjoy the warm Andaman Sea and view multitude of tropical fish of all colors, shapes and sizes. After enjoying wonder of Andaman Sea, your speedboat returns you to the pier in Phuket and the ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 450 yards over even and sandy surfaces with 3 to 4 steps to enter the boat. Low heeled, comfortable walking shoes and comfortable, loose clothing are recommended. Sunscreen, swimwear and towels are recommended. Guests should consider their physical fitness level and medical history when determining whether this tour is appropriate. Guests with cardiac conditions, asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, other heart or respiratory conditions or any other medical condition should take particular caution when selecting a tour with snorkeling/swimming elements. Guests who have concerns should consult with their personal physician before engaging in any activity that may be strenuous for them.

PK11

Sea Cave Canoe Adventure

10:00 am

8 ½ Hrs

Adult $125

Child $99

Depart the port by coach and journey to the island's northern tip, before boarding an open-air motor boat for a cruise through Phang Nga Bay National Park. Upon arrival at the park, board a three-man Sea Explorer inflatable canoe. Traveling by canoe is the only way to enter a world that is the preserve of a fortunate few. After passing through the sea caves you'll enter interior lagoon ("hongs"), which have been created by centuries of sea and wind action. Later, a Thai-style seafood lunch and fresh fruit will be served while sightseeing in the bay. Enjoy some free time for a refreshing swim at Lawa Yai Island in Phang Nga Bay. Before returning to the ship, your coach will pause for shopping at a local handicraft Center. Note: Tour includes approximately 2.5 hours of canoeing. Guests must be able to walk approximately 500 yards over even and uneven surfaces with 8 steps. This excursion is not suitable for guest with physical limitations. Sunscreen, sunglasses, swimwear and towels are recommended and participants should carry a backpack for belongings. Although there is no minimum age, all Guests must be able to swim. Time permitting; guests will have approximately 25 minutes for shopping and browsing.

PK12

Phang Nga Bay

10:00 am

8 Hrs

Adult $75

Child $59

The unparalleled scenery of Phang Nga Bay defies description. The boat cruise through this picture perfect waterway is a wonderful experience not to be missed during your visit to southern Thailand. Upon arrival at Phang Nga Bay National Park, you will switch to a motorboat and begin an unforgettable cruise through the surrealist landscape of limestone stacks. The awesome scenery of Phang Nga Bay is well worth the trip. As you cruise, see Kao Ping Gun Island. Popularly known as James Bond Island, it was here where the filming of the last scenes of The Man with the Golden Gun took place. The boat will approach the island for a photo opportunity. You will also have a chance to visit Koh Panyi, a water village where more than 200 houses were built on stilts with attached wooden walkways. Enjoy a late lunch at Phang Nga Bay Resort, a setting overlooking the mangrove forest and towering hills. The buffet lunch features a selection of Thai cuisine. After lunch, enjoy a visit to Suwan Khuha Temple. The cave temple is where numerous Buddha statues standing, reclining, and seated are located. After the temple visit, rejoin your coach and begin the drive back to Phuket Island. Time permitting, a stop will allow for some browsing and shopping for local products and handmade local souvenirs.

Phuket, Thailand

May 31, 2012

Arrival: 10:00 am

All Aboard: 8:30 pm

Tour Description

Departure

Duration

No. of Tickets

Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 650 yards over even and uneven surfaces. This excursion is not suitable for Guests with physical limitations. Low heeled, comfortable walking shoes and comfortable, loose clothing are recommended. Participants may get wet while riding the motorboat. Phang Nga Bay Resort is a small locally run hotel which offers reasonable and clean facilities without luxury. Time permitting; guests will have approximately 25 minutes for shopping and browsing.

PK23

Phuket Landmarks

10:15 am

5 ½ Hrs

Adult $49__

Child $39__

Big Buddha Temple (Mingmongkol Eak Nakakiri Temple)

From anywhere in the south of Phuket, you will see a towering Buddha image located at the top of Nark Kerd Mountain. This giant Buddha, as known locally, is destined to become a local landmark and a sacred place facing Chalong bay. It is 45 meters high and 25 meters across the base. Its name is "Phra Puttamingmongkol Akenakkiri Buddha". Chalong Temple - Located about three miles south of Phuket Town, this impressive temple is Phuket's largest and most sacred monastery. Of particular interest are gold-leaf-encrusted statues of three former abbots. One of them Luang Por Cheam, was well known for his medical skills and magical powers, which he successfully used when Phuket was attacked by Chinese Rebellion at the turn of the 20th century. Cashew Nut Factory - Cashew nut tree is originated in the rain forest. In 1901, the former governor general of Phuket brought the seeds of cashew nut into the Southern territory of Siam Kingdom. Since then, this crop had widely cultivated and developed to thrive throughout the Kingdom. There, you will watch a process of cashew nut products such as skilled workers cracking nutshells to create a mouth watering variety of snacks and sweets. Taste the various types of snacks and sweet made on the premises before you move on. Before going to Phuket Town, a short shopping stop is made at a local products shop for those who are keen on shopping. Jui Tui Shrine - Phuket has a number of Chinese shrines dedicated to various gods. Some interesting ones can be found in the Old Town and its surroundings. They all get a great deal of attention when the renowned vegetarian festival takes place during October. After a visit to different places, a refreshment break will be made at the local coffee shop in Phuket Town where local beverages, soft drink, coffee or tea served. Thai Hua Museum - A must do in Phuket is walk along the Sino Portuguese Mansion's (old Phuket houses). Passing the preserved mansions continue on toward the Thai Hua Museum where you can view a number of exhibits on display about the history of Phuket.

PK25

Patong Orientation

11:15 am

5 Hrs

Adult $20__

Child $15__

After approximately 50 minute to an hour bus ride, you will arrive at Patong Beach for 3 hours of free time at your leisure. Patong Beach is the most active beach in Phuket, Recently upgraded from "Village" to the status of "City". Famous for its long sandy beach but also for its famous hyper active night life. Please note that this is not guided round trip transfer to patong.

PK26

Shopping Tour

11:15 am

5 Hrs

Adult $22__

Child $15__

Phuket is a shopaholic's paradise! The island has a great variety of shopping, from street stalls and local shops to western style department stores and upmarket specialty shops: Pornthip Sea Store: Master dealer of flossy and crispy baked pork, dried seafood mixed with herb products for health, preserved fruits, cashew nuts and other Phuket desserts. T-shirt factory: It offers quality and unique Phuket t-shirts at the best prices. Jungceylon Shopping Complex: Centre for shopping, drinking, dining, entertainment and leisure that will impress all visitors. During free time (approximately 2 hours), you can enjoy local stalls, shopping malls, dining, massage or walking to Patong Beach.

PK29

Phuket Sightseeing & Shopping

10:30 am

5 ½ Hrs

Adult $25__

Child $19__

Promthep Cape - This Phuket landmark, located in the southern-most tip of the island, offers some spectacular views of the Andaman Sea and picturesque Nai Harn Bay. To the north, there are expansive panoramas along the length of the coast. It is also a house of God Brahma or known by Chinese as "Four Face Buddha". Wat Chalong Monastery - Located 3.5 miles south of Phuket town, this impressive temple is Phuket's largest and most sacred. It is best known for its gold leaf encrusted statues of three former abbots. One of them, Luang Por Chem, was especially respected for his medical skills and magical powers, which he successfully used when Phuket was attacked by army of Chinese at the turn of the century. Cashew Nut Factory - Cashew nut tree is originated in the rain forest. In 1901, the former governor general of Phuket brought the seeds of cashew nut into the Southern territory of Siam Kingdom. Since then, this crop had widely cultivated and developed to thrive throughout the Kingdom. There, you will watch a process of cashew nut products such as skilled workers cracking nutshells to create a mouth watering variety of snacks and sweets. Taste the various types of snacks and sweet made on the premises before you move on. A shopping stop will be made at local products shop where there are numerous local products are to be purchased such as Thai silk, pewter, porcelains, silver, cultured pearls, stones and so on. Central Festival Phuket - 120,000 square meters bursting with world-class products, Central Festival Phuket is the consummate one-stop shopping, non-stop entertainment complex for every Phuket resident and visitor. Enjoy the newest, largest, most complete shopping and entertainment complex in the South. Admire broad and enticing selections of men's and women's fashion. There are a number of restaurants that you can enjoy lunch on your own (not included in the tour price) before returning to pier.

Singapore

June 2, 2012

Arrival: 6:00 am

Tour Description

Departure

Duration

No. of Tickets

SP10

Singapore Sojourn - Hotel Drop Off

7:45 am

4 Hrs

Adult $55__

Child $42__

SP11

Singapore Sojourn - Airport Drop-Off

7:45 am

4 Hrs

Adult $55__

Child $45__

SP28

Singapore Sojourn - Cruise Center Drop-Off

7:45 am

4 Hrs

Adult $55__

Child $42__

Travel directly by air-conditioned motor coach through the exotic quarter of "Little India," where stalls are perfumed with fragrant jasmine garlands. Merchants offer everything from sarees and aromatic spices to intricate ornaments. Continue to the Raffles' landing site beside the Singapore River before continuing on foot through the civic district. See Parliament House, the Victoria Theatre, the Empress Place Building and other colonial structures which have been restored to their original splendor. Back aboard your bus; pass other colonial-styled buildings including the City Hall, Supreme Court and the legendary Raffles Hotel. Your attention will also be drawn to the statue of the Merlion, Singapore's enduring symbol. Soon, your coach will cross the Singapore River, traverse Shenton Way, commonly known as Asia's Wall Street, and enter historic Chinatown. During your stroll here; you'll be introduced to age-old customs and architecture from a bygone era. Look for Chinese medicine shops, teahouses, acupuncturists and calligraphers as you wander along the atmospheric narrow streets. The Botanical Gardens encompass the world's largest orchid collection, featuring 60,000 plants displayed in a natural setting. Stroll through this lush tropical park before reboarding your coach for Orchard Road, the city's fashionable shopping district. At the conclusion of the tour, guests with confirmed reservations will be dropped off at the following hotels: Proof of your hotel reservation confirmation will be needed for the hotel drop-off. Guests staying in a hotel not mentioned will be dropped off at the Singapore Cruise Centre. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately .5 mile over flat and cobblestone surfaces. The amount of walking in Chinatown is at guest discretion. Sequence of tour may change to avoid over crowding at venues. Guests participating in the tour with Hotel Drop Off will be dropped at on of the following hotels: I. The Conrad Centennial - 2 Temasek Boulevard, Singapore 038982. II. Marina Mandarin - 6 Raffles Boulevard, Marina Square Singapore 039594 III. Swiss Hotel, The Stamford - 2 Stamford Road, Singapore 178882. Guests with airport drop off need to have flight departures after 3:00 pm in order to participate.